

But I want to make the point, this is not just about people being furloughed. This is about a fundamental difference on how we achieve a balanced budget and whether we achieve it in 7 years, as the Republican Congress feels we can, or whether it is 8 years, 9 years, 10 years or maybe 7 years, if the President would agree.

So I hope we can continue to work. Most of us will be happy to meet later this evening if there is any opportunity to work out a successful agreement.

ADJOURNMENT UNTIL 2:30 P.M.
TOMORROW

Mr. DOLE. Mr. President, if there is no further business to come before the Senate, I ask unanimous consent that the Senate stand in adjournment under the previous order.

There being no objection, the Senate, at 6:53 p.m., adjourned until Sunday, November 19, 1995, at 2:30 p.m.
